Maddie Evans

School: James River

Year: Senior

Position: Midfield

The skinny: A four-year starter and two-year captain, Evans was the Dominion District player of the year and shared the region player of the year honor with Cassie Turnage of Maggie Walker GS. Evans, who was second-team all-state, scored 10 goals and handed out 16 assists.

If you had one wish, what would it be: To have a million dollars.

Chaney Manganello

School: St. Catherine's

Year: Senior

Position: Back

The skinny: An all-LIS and all-state defender, she moves up from last year's second-team All-Metro slot. Manganello was a key factor on a Saints team that beat Collegiate twice during the regular season and advanced to the state championship game. She is headed to William and Mary.

If you had one wish, what would it be: To be able to sing.

Katie Mastropieri

School: Collegiate

Year: Senior

Position: Center forward

The skinny: Has been a starter for four years and joins teammate Hillary Zell with two state titles and two state runner-up finishes. She scored 18 goals and wound up with 71 in her career. Has great touch and finesse with the ball. Repeats as first-team All-Metro and all-state. Is headed to Vanderbilt.

If you had one wish, what would it be: To have the same team chemistry in college next year.

Janie O'Connor

School: Collegiate

Year: Senior

Position: Left back

The skinny: Had a terrific senior season in which she was named all-LIS and all-state. A three-year starter and co-captain this year. Scored six goals, five of which came on penalty strokes in five different games. She anticipates well and was a flyer on defensive penalty corners.

If you had one wish, what would it be: To be able to play with this year's hockey team again. I miss everyone so much!

Kelsey Powell

School: Cosby

Year: Senior

Position: Midfield

The skinny: Powell was key in sparking the Titans to a runner-up finish in the Central Region tournament. Cosby won the Dominion District title and constructed a 13-game winning streak. Powell, headed to VCU, scored 12 goals and delivered 16 assists. Moved up from last year's second team. Was first-team all-district and all-region and second-team all-state.

If you had one wish, what would it be: For every child to have a family and a home.

Hannah Robbins

School: Thomas Dale

Year: Junior

Position: Left forward

The skinny: Poised and only a junior, Robbins helped the Knights win their third straight Central Region title. She was the leading scorer with 22 goals, scored in 15 of 19 games and registered seven multi-goal outings. She was first-team all-Central District and all-region and second-team all-state.

If you had one wish, what would it be: I wish I could sing.

Anna Rollins

School: Thomas Dale

Year: Senior

Position: Sweeper

The skinny: Rollins' command of the back helped Thomas Dale record 13 shutouts and give up just nine goals all season. Only in the state quarterfinal loss did a team score more than once on the Knights. Rollins was first-team all-Central District and all-region and second-team all-state.

If you had one wish, what would it be: That I could read people's minds.

Sydney Schreiner

School: St. Catherine's

Year: Senior

Position: Midfield

The skinny: The Saints' linchpin in the middle, Schreiner earned all-LIS and all-state honors this season. She was a tri-captain with Chaney Manganello and Allie Huitt. Schreiner was selected to USA Field Hockey's Futures Elite Program and will continue her career at Davidson College.

If you had one wish, what would it be: To travel anywhere in the world.

Haley Stough

School: Mills Godwin

Year: Senior

Position: Forward

The skinny: A four-year starter and one of the architects of the Eagles' program (4 years old), Stough has been one of the most prolific goal scorers in the Central Region. She scored 24 goals during the regular season and five in the playoffs when the Eagles advanced to the region tournament semifinals. She was first-team all-Colonial District and all-region and second-team all-state.

If you had one wish, what would it be: To speak a second language fluently.

Taylor Thomas

School: Collegiate

Year: Senior

Position: Goalkeeper

The skinny: A two-year starter, Thomas was at her best during the postseason. She likes a challenge and rises to it. She had 11 shutouts this season to go along with 11 last year. Thomas is headed to the University of North Carolina.

If you had one wish, what would it be: To be a kindergartner again.

Cassie Turnage

School: Maggie Walker GS

Year: Junior

Position: Center midfield

The skinny: Stepped forward in a basically rebuilt lineup and became the Colonial District player of the year. Earned first-team all-Central Region honors, was co-region player of the year with James River's Maddie Evans and was first-team all-state. Turnage scored 11 goals and handed out 26 assists. Her sister, Bonny, was a first-team girls cross country All-Metro pick.

If you had one wish, what would it be: That everyone in the world could play sports.
